Bundesliga Legends Pavel Pardo and Ricardo Osorio visit Los Angeles and Miami with the “Bundesliga Legends Tour”

As part of the "Bundesliga Legends Tour" the two former Mexican international players Pavel Pardo and Ricardo Osorio from 23 to 26 February 2018 Los Angeles and Miami. Outstanding personalities of the Bundesliga history spread on the "Bundesliga Legends Tour" the values and characteristics of the Bundesliga and report on their experiences.

Both will be undertaking numerous media engagements, will hold meetings with the fans, such as Public viewing events, and bringing Germany’s highest division closer to American football fans at the “Bundesliga Legends Tour”. The Legends Tour is organized in collaboration with Spanish-speaking media partners FOX Deportes and UNIVISION.

Pardo and Osorio are the first Mexicans in the top division of Germany and simultaneously also the first German champions from Mexico. After a fantastic World Cup 2006 they moved to VfB Stuttgart. Not only Pardo, but also Osorio were absolute performers from the beginning and contributed a large share to the champions title in 2007.

“It’s an honour for me to represent the Bundesliga”, said Pardo. “Me and my friend Ricardo were so happy to be a part of the Bundesliga history, especially the German Champion in 2007 with the VfB Stuttgart.”

Osorio mention, “The Bundesliga has come a long way since then. Packed modern stadia, a fabulous fans, ticket prices for everyone and a level of competition that ranks among the best in the world. As a football fan, I am hugely proud to communicate the great features of our league to the world.”

After nearly 250 appearances for Club America and impressive appearances at the FIFA World Cup, Pardo takes on a new challenge in the Bundesliga in 2006. Within two years, he came 71 times in the Bundesliga used before he returned in 2009 to Club America.

Osorio started his career in 2002 with Cruz Azul. For this club, he played until 2006. On 1 July 2006, he moved in the Bundesliga to VfB Stuttgart. After expiration of his contract in Stuttgart Osorio changed in July 2010 back to CF Monterrey in Mexico. At this club he finished his career in the summer of 2016.
